THRESHER BREAKS LEG AT THE FORT

RUNNING IN FOR A LOW DRIVE
IN BASEBALL GAME RESULTS
IN SERIOUS MISHAP—EWAUNA
TEAM WINS AGAIN

The Ewauna Box Company's team took another victory yesterday, when it trimmed the Fort Klamath aggregation 14 to 6. In this game, Cook, the Pendleton slasher who is signed up with Ewauna, made his first appearance, and although he was hit frequently, owing to his being out of practice, he demonstrated that he has smoke and good headwork. Willey and Winders caught the game.

The Fort Klamath battery was Leever and Bullard.

The joy of the Ewauna victory was saddened by the fact that Harry Thresher, one of the mainstays of the team, fractured his ankle while playing in the outfield. Thresher was running in to get a low drive in the seventh, when he stepped in a hole and received the injury. This will incapacitate Thresher for some time. Last Sunday he caught for the Ewauna team, and he was laid out at that time by being hit over the heart with a swiftly pitched ball. Hard luck seems to camp on Harry's trail, and he has the sympathy of all the fans, who know him for a clean, game ball player.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—The treasury department and the secret service are seeking the whereabouts of Knox Booth, in connection with a reported $20,000,000 revenue collection scandal just revealed, which extends over three administrations.

Booth has been missing for a fortnight. His disappearance was simultaneous with the arrest of John Caspar of Fort Smith, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government. Caspar states that as a distillery reporter, Booth, through a conspiracy, enabled many distillers to evade the full revenue tax.

The arrest of Caspar marks the beginning of a sweeping investigation. This will turn the spotlight on the af-
